A Mother's Message to Her Son. Do you know that your soul is of my soul such part.

That you seem to be fiber and care of my heart?

None other can pain me as you, son, can do;

None other can please me or praise me as you.

Remember, the world will be quick with its blame,

If shadow or stain ever darken your name;

"Like mother, like son," is a saying so true,

The world will judge largely of mother by you.

Be this, then, your task, if task it shall be,

To force this proud world to do homage to me.

Be sure it will say when its verdict you've won:

"She reaps as she sowed; this man is her son."
